

Bursaries Available

The BHP Foundation generously assists CILLDI in sponsoring bursaries to support individuals interested in pursuing courses at CILLDI.

The 2023 CILLDI bursary will cover the University of Alberta Open Studies tuition and fees for any two CILLDI courses, as well as accommodation for in-person students up to $1,470.

Deadline: April 15, 2023.

Note: Only a limited number of these bursaries are available.

Our mission is to provide training about the various tools of language revitalization to as many people as possible. For this reason, we offer classes both in-person at the University of Alberta, and online, in order to accommodate as many students as possible.
